DESCRIPTION

Height: 5'8"

Sex: Male

Race: Black

Remarks: The subject is described as having curly black hair, however, he may have been wearing a wig. The subject wore a tan, flannel-lined long-sleeved work shirt over a dark hooded sweatshirt, blue jeans, grey gloves, and dark sunglasses.

Weapon Used: Semi-automatic handgun

CAUTION

On April 26, 2017, an unknown male suspect entered the Citizens Bank and Trust located at 1712 South Main Street in Farmville, Virginia. He produced a weapon and demanded money from the victim teller.

Just prior to the robbery, witnesses reported seeing a Black male with similar characteristics as this unknown suspect toss several bottles onto a school building. Investigators identified the chemicals as possible fire accelerants, often used when creating homemade improvised explosive devices.
